

Submitted photos

Employees of the Watertown Co-op Grain & Fuel Association in 1967 included Don Lhotka, manager; Eldor Hecksel, Joel Best, Lyle Tuseth, Harold Dressel, Jerry Fritz, Willard Baumann, and Les Simon.

Members of the Butcher Boys bowling team, competed in the state Bowling Proprietors Association Tournament at Minnehaha Lanes in St. Paul were: David Schroeder, Harold McKittrick, Loren Schrupp, Lloyd Cornell, and Roy Schmidt. They qualified for state competition by winning the district elimination tournament at Buffalo that year. A win at the state meet would qualify the team to advance to the national finals at Wichita, KS in August, with all expenses paid.

Long Nails Lueck (Linus Lueck) competed with Persuasive Hank (Pastor Henry Mueller).

Icy Pull Benson (Louie Benson) competed in the milking contest with his nemesis, Greasy Fingers Ray (Ray Etnier).